

Cheryl Hayes is currently the Vice President of SBA Originations for Bank of the West. In this role she helps small and medium sized businesses grow by providing them the financing they need to acquire real estate, equipment, and working capital. Prior to Bank of the West, Cheryl provided SBA lending while with California Bank & Trust and various real estate and SBA financing while at GE Capital. Cheryl has her MBA from UC Berkeley and her BS from Purdue University, and Cheryl just graduated from Pacific Coast Banking School in September 2015. Originally from Ohio, she now lives with her husband Scott in Oakland. Cheryl enjoys cooking, traveling, skiing, biking, kayaking, scuba diving and other outdoor activities. Cheryl was awarded CREW East Bay's Most Valuable Member in December 2018