CREW East Bay Announces that Holly Neber was Elected 2019 President of CREW Network

Danville, Calif. – The announcement that Holly Neber was elected 2019 President of CREW Network was made at the 2018 CREW Network Convention and Marketplace in San Diego, CA. Ms. Neber looks forward to “serving CREW Network as president in 2019, a pivotal time in our industry and our 30th year as an organization.”

As CEO of AEI Consultants, Holly Neber guides AEI’s growth and expansion strategy, builds AEI’s employee owner culture, and represents AEI in the industry by connecting directly with clients and participating in industry organizations. She was named among RealShare’s California Women of Influence in 2015, Bisnow’s Bay Area Power Women in 2016 and 2017, and Real Estate Forum’s Women of Influence in 2018. Holly Neber has been a member of CREW East Bay since 2009 and has held various positions within the chapter including serving as President in 2014.

CREW East Bay, with 130 members, is the leading organization for senior-level executive women in the Alameda and Contra Costa County commercial real estate field. Part of CREW Network, the industry’s premier networking coalition, CREW East Bay is transforming the commercial real estate industry by advancing women globally. CREW

Network's membership of 11,000 professionals in more than 70 major global markets represents all aspects of commercial real estate, providing members with direct access to real estate professionals across all geographies and disciplines.
